Academy of Feng Shui Home Study Certification Program

West Coast

Erica Sofrina is the founder of the Academy of Feng Shui and director of the West Coast division, which she founded a decade ago.

She is an internationally recognized teacher, consultant, lecturer and author of the book "Small Changes, Dynamic Results! Feng Shui for the Western World". She has run a successful consulting and interior design business for over a decade bringing with her 25 years prior experience as a Director of Sales and Marketing in the corporate arena. She is a graduate of the Western School of Feng Shui and holds a masters degree in Music from Notre Dame de Namur University and is also a talented Opera and Musical Theater performer.

Erica is known for her inspiring, practical teaching style that encompasses her engaging personality, her love of connecting with groups and her wealth of knowledge and experience. Her ability to translate this complex art and science into simple, usable applications has brought her international acclaim as a premiere teacher of Feng Shui for the West.

The Academy of Feng Shui Practitioner Home Study Certification Program is designed to give the student a solid foundation in Feng Shui principles for both residences and business. We incorporate a hands-on approach with an emphasis on cultivating your ability to feel and move energy in physical environments.

Students will explore the ancient roots of this great art and science, from a Western perspective that is easy to understand and apply. You will learn the secrets of how these principles can be pragmatically applied to help direct the positive flow of energy into your lives and the lives of your clients.

Students participating in the Home Study Program will be assigned a regularly scheduled mentoring session via telephone or Skype with one of our experts in the field to support you every step of the way! Your mentors will be one of our School Directors with over a decade of experience in the industry.

The program incorporates homework assignments after each course, designed so that at the completion of course four you will be issued your Certification of Completion, a Certified Feng Shui Consultant.

The Certification Training Program is designed for the working professional who is interested in enhancing and changing their lives by awakening their natural sense of art, harmony, and balance. These richly designed programs work on many levels, bringing forth your inner artist, imparting practical tools enabling you to experience a shift in your aesthetic perspective, all leading to the enrichment of your own life and the lives of your clients.

These courses speak to many professionals, including interior and landscape designers, architects, realtors, professional organizers, holistic health professionals, yoga instructors and women re-entering the workplace. These programs are designed to bring forth your inner artist and enhance your present career or guiding you to your next one!

Extraordinary, life-changing results often flow from making simple, practical adjustments to ones surroundings. Feng Shui is a natural catalyst to the profound results many have experienced in areas of Prosperity, Health, Career, and Relationships. If you are inspired to enrich your life by learning how you can support and enhance the lives and surroundings of others...look into these courses. In doing so, you will be embarking on a richly rewarding journey to challenge your self and transform your life!
