

Academy of Feng Shui

West Coast

Erica Sofrina is the founder of the Academy of Feng Shui and director of the West Coast division, which she founded a decade ago. She is an internationally recognized teacher, consultant, lecturer and author of the book "Small Changes, Dynamic Results! Feng Shui for the Western World". She has run a successful consulting and interior design business for over a decade bringing with her 25 years prior experience as a Director of Sales and Marketing in the corporate arena. She is a graduate of the Western School of Feng Shui and holds a masters degree in Music from Notre Dame de Namur University and is also a talented Opera and Musical Theater performer.

Erica is known for her inspiring, practical teaching style that encompasses her engaging personality, her love of connecting with groups and her wealth of knowledge and experience. Her ability to translate this complex art and science into simple, usable applications has brought her international acclaim as a premiere teacher of Feng Shui for the West.

The Academy of Feng Shui Practitioner Certification Programs are designed to give the student a solid foundation in Feng Shui principles for both residences and business. We incorporate a hands-on approach with an emphasis on cultivating your ability to feel and move energy in physical environments.

Students will explore the ancient roots of this great art and science, from a Western perspective that is easy to understand and apply. You will learn the secrets of how these principles can be pragmatically applied to help direct the positive flow of energy into your lives and the lives of your clients.

Classes are kept small to allow for a personalized learning experience. The programs integrate a combination of lectures and practicum's designed to give the student real-life situations within the support of a classroom setting.

This program is designed to accommodate students who have full home and work lives. Enrollment is limited, and classes fill up quickly. We encourage you to reserve your place as soon as possible by going to our web sites at
